JOINT REQUEST FOR DISMISSAL
OF EMERGENCY REQUEST FOR ORDER TO REQUIRE STATION WBTY TO
CHANGE CHANNELS OR TO DELETE CONDITION ON CONSTRUCTION PERMIT
AND/OR SPECIAL TEMPORARY AUTHORITY AND CONDITIONAL REQUEST TO
REVOKE LICENSE OF WVGA

RTG Media, LLC ("RTG Media"), Southern Broadcasting and Investments, Inc. ("Southern"), and Jesup Broadcasting Corporation ("Jesup") (collectively, the "Parties"), by their respective attorneys, hereby withdraw the Emergency Request for Order to Require Station WBTY to Change Channels or to Delete Condition on Construction Permit and/or Special Temporary Authority and Conditional Request to Revoke License of WVGA ("Emergency Request") and related pleadings filed by the parties in this proceeding currently pending before the Federal Communications Commission, and respectfully request that the Commission dismiss the Emergency Request and related pleadings with prejudice and terminate this proceeding. In support of this Joint Request, the following is shown:

1. Jesup filed the Emergency Request with the Commission in connection with its efforts to upgrade its facilities for WIFO-FM. The Commission conditioned the WIFO-FM upgrade on Southern changing channels for station WBTY(FM) pursuant to MM Docket No. 90-214, in which the Commission authorized an upgrade in facilities for WVGA(FM) and instructed Southern to change WBTY(FM) from Channel 288A to Channel 254A to accommodate the WVGA(FM) upgrade (the "Frequency Order"). The Frequency Order also required the prior licensee of WVGA(FM), Albert Brooks, to compensate Southern for reasonable and prudent expenses associated with changing channels for the Station pursuant to the Frequency Order. Subsequently, the license for WVGA(FM) was assigned from Albert Brooks to RTG Media.

2. This filing is to advise the Commission that on June 28, 2001, RTG Media, Southern and Jesup entered into an agreement (the "Settlement Agreement") whereby RTG Media would reimburse Southern for its reasonable and prudent expenses associated with changing frequencies for WBTY(FM) from Channel 288A to Channel 254A. The Settlement Agreement also requires the Parties to withdraw all pleadings regarding the Emergency Request and to seek termination of the proceedings with prejudice.

3. WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, RTG Media, Southern and Jesup respectfully request that the Commission dismiss the Emergency Request and related pleadings with prejudice, and the Parties respectfully request that the Commission terminate the instant proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,

RTG MEDIA, LLC
